VOLUME 60 NUMBER 11

JULY 2021

President's Message

Shalom Everyone,

On behalf of the entire congregation of Temple Beth Am, I would like to extend our sincerest condolences to Helen Ardit and her family on the passing of her father, Edward Ardit. Our deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Fayanne Wagman on her passing. Fayanne will be missed by all of us who knew her. Fayanne's many contributions to the Temple Beth Am family and throughout the Rochester community, along with her kind, warm personality, will always be remembered.

We were notified by Temple B'rith Kodesh in mid-June that we needed to vacate our storage room and move its contents to a storage space in the basement. I would like to thank Ronna Marsh, Paul Breese-Garelick, Bruce Nelson, Marv and Eileen Fishman, Ami Schmerl, Lou Babin, and Avivah Steinberg for helping me consolidate and sort many of our items and to shelve them in the new room after Don Crane and his crew from Temple B'rith Kodesh moved them to the new area. Thanks also to Sam and Shelli Asher and Fran Nardia for helping with their Ohel Avraham items.

"Hope," is defined as a feeling of expectation and desire for things to change for the better, and to want that better situation very much. It is a word that exists in every language. In the Preamble to the Constitution of the United States, our Forefathers expressed their hopes of . . . "establishing Justice, ensuring domestic Tranquility, providing for the common defense, promoting the general Welfare, and securing the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity..." Most of us descend from ancestors who immigrated to the United States in hopes of seeking a better life for both themselves and their families. They sought freedom from religious persecution, poverty, warfare, and famine. They sought out freedom, equality, and prosperity. As we celebrate Independence Day, let us remember our ancestors and our country's forefathers by proving that the "American Dream" is still viable. Let us do everything within our individual abilities to heal and unite the peoples of this great nation, the United States of America.

Wishing each of you and those you cherish a very "Happy Independence Day" a.k.a. "Fourth of July!" from my family to yours!

Ruth Kei Steinberg
President
