VOLUME 64 NUMBER 3

MID-JANUARY 2025

Presidents Message

Shalom Everyone,

On behalf of the entire Congregation of Temple Beth Am, I would like to express our deepest condolences to the entire family of Sam Asher, z"l. May Sam's memory be for a blessing. Yvonne, Isaac, and Quinn, our congregation and the Rochester Jewish community will miss your Father. Your Father's exuberance and joy of being Jewish was truly infectious, especially whenever he led Shabbat and holiday services. He will also be missed for the beautiful music he shared with everyone and the D'var Torahs he gave.

We also would like to extend our deepest sympathy to Sara Ruderman upon the death of her brother, Ellis Ruderman, z"l. May Ellis' memory be for a blessing.

Here are a few of the upcoming events for late January through February in the community:

of Jews demonstrating how to put on tefillin. These videos were created by a group of Hebrew College students, faculty, and alumni in response to the lack of gender diversity on YouTube for tefillin tutorial videos. We hope these videos will make the beautiful ritual of tefillin more accessible to folks who have previously not seen themselves reflected in these practices.

In the last newsletter, I talked about exchanging beams of light with total strangers, while I was on vacation. I would like to suggest that those beams of light travel full circle, like life itself

Due to the size of McCarran/Henry Reid International Airport and the fact that I was still hobbling around, we requested transportation assistance through the airport to arrive in time for our return flight. A lady with a very pretty, embroidered hijab came to provide the requested assistance. When she saw the Army Logo on my husband's hat and jacket, she told me that she had served as an interpreter for the U.S. military serving in Afghanistan during the war. I thanked her profusely for helping to keep our troops safe. As we continued through the security checkpoint and onward to our departure gate, she told me that she was born in Egypt, to an Ethiopian Father and an Egyptian Mother, and thus fluent in seven languages. My paternal Aunt Esther, z"l, was born in Egypt and she too was multilingual. My husband then asked our transporter why she did not apply to work as an interpreter at the U.N. She replied that the U.N. offered a position, but unfortunately her son became ill, so she had to stay in Nevada to be close to him.

As many of you know, I used to work for the Federal government. In 2004, I had the opportunity to interview a family applying for Social Security cards. Since it was Hanukkah,

March Anniversary

Happy Anniversary to:
 Herb and Estelle Morris

I had my Menorah, in the shape of a lion, on top of my overhead cabinet. Upon seeing the Menorah, the Father went ahead to show me that Israel had issued their passports. He said that he knew about Hanukkah. The family were Palestinian refugees from the West Bank. What made this family memorable was that despite all they had lost, they were extremely grateful to be here in the United States. Besides the striking beauty of the daughters, the entire family were so positive and happy. They had waited on the West Bank for two years before asylum was granted to them by the United States. About three years ago, at one of the Naturalization Ceremonies I attended on behalf of the Auxiliary Unit for American Legion Post #330, I had the pleasure of seeing the family become Americans. At Hanukkah this past year, Avivah and I were in the checkout line in Burlington behind a very bubbly and happy family. When the family turned around, I saw that it was the same family that I had helped so many years ago. One of the daughters had a two year old girl. They too, remembered me from the office after all those years.

So, as you can see, my life is a continuous circle full of these intersecting beams of light. It is a constant reminder that I should always extend a warm welcome to everyone and be openly receptive to those I meet. One never knows when you will have that beam of light and connection you made come back to you.

Just as a reminder, until we are FULLY merged, please mail any correspondence, donations, dues, and honorariums to the following address:

Temple Beth El Senior Rabbi Search

We are excited to begin the process of finding a new Senior Rabbi following Rabbi Bitran's retirement in July of 2026. The Rabbi Search Committee, headed by Carolyn Nussbaum, is composed of leaders and lay leaders in our congregation and greater community, and holds the Temple's best interests at heart.

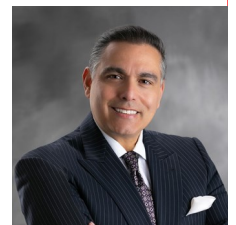

We are looking for your input in this process. Send us an email at rabbisearch@tberochester.org or fill out the form at <https://forms.gle/Jpj2N9AGExGQDP4Z9>

The search for a new Senior Rabbi is entering the next phase with a visit from Rabbi Carnie Shalom Rose on February 7 through 9.

Members of the congregation will have a chance to observe and meet Rabbi Rose at several events for all ages, including Morning Minyan, Kabbalat Shabbat Services, Shabbat Dinner (RSVP required), Mincha/Maariv, and the World Wide Wrap.

Rabbi Rose has served in congregations and Jewish organizations around the world, most recently as president and CEO of the Mandel Jewish Community Center in Cleveland. Prior to that, he served as Senior Rabbinic Chair of Congregation B'nai Amoona in St. Louis for 17 years.

He has a strong history of congregational and community leadership with a focus on education, especially with Jewish youth.

World Wide Wrap 2025

Sunday, February 9, 2025, 9:15 am

You are invited to take part in FJMC's World Wide Wrap 2025 and join tens of thousands of Jewish men, women and youth across New York, the United States and around the world as they gather to participate in a morning minyan and learn about the wonder and joy of Tefillin.

The World Wide Wrap is an international, coordinated minyan encouraging Jewish men and women to learn about and participate in one of the basic mitzvot, or commandments, in the Torah: the wrapping of tefillin.

This event will be led by Rabbi Bitran, Rabbi Rose, Hazzan Austerklein, and the TBE Men's Club.
