VOLUME 64 NUMBER 5

JUNE-JULY 2025

Presidents Message

Shalom, Everyone –

On behalf of the entire congregation of Temple Beth Am, I would like to congratulate Mrs. Meredith Dragon, CEO, The Jewish Federation of Greater Rochester, on her new position as Executive Vice President and CEO of the Jewish Federation of Greater MetroWest NJ. We would like to say, "Thank You," for your great stewardship of Rochester's Jewish Community. Under your enthusiastic stewardship, you have strengthened the sense of Jewish Identity beyond the various Synagogue communities in the area. You have also made us safer in these challenging times by establishing the ROCStrong Safety & Security Campaign and providing security training for all the synagogues, small and large. Your dedication to promoting understanding and tolerance in the Rochester community, cultivating the next generation of Jewish leaders in Rochester, and the cultural exchange of the ShinShinim, as well as achieving record-setting success in our Annual Campaign for Jewish Needs and Israel Emergency Campaign, has been truly remarkable. While we will miss you, we wish you every success in your new endeavor and adventure. Here is to you!

The congregation and I would also like to proffer "Congratulations" to Paul Breese-Garelick, our 2nd Vice President, upon his forthcoming retirement. Best wishes to you and Debbie as you round the corner in the next chapter of your lives.

Belated "Happy Birthday" wishes to Sharon Garelick, Tal Steinberg, Lou Babin, and Paul Breese-Garelick. We wish each of you many, many more birthdays and hope that each of you had a wonderful birthday! Wishing you each Long Life and much happiness.

Oy ye! Oy ye! Please mark your calendars for our upcoming ANNUAL CONGREGATION MEETING on Tuesday, June 24th, 2025, at 7 pm in
